

2010 USAWKF NATIONALS AND INTERNATIONAL WUSHU-KUNGFU CHAMPIONSHIPS

March 16, 2010

Dear Masters Friends and Athletes:

On behalf of the United States of America Wushu-Kungfu Federation (USAWKF), Li's Wushu Academy, you are cordially invited to attend the following special events scheduled July 17-18, 2010 at the San Jose Convention Center and the Civic Auditorium:

- * The U.S.A. National Junior Wushu Team Trials
- * International Wushu Championships and Masters Exhibition
- * The National Wushu Championships and National Junior Wushu Team Trials
- * USA International Sport Culture Industry Forum

(1) International Wushu-Health Qigong Championships (for all ages and levels)

Wushu groups and individual athletes from various countries and regions are invited to compete in this competition. Open to both male and female athletes of various age groups, and covering traditional wushu, modern wushu, taijiquan, health qigong, etc. At this event the following will be determined: International school and Team Champion, International Individual All-Around Champion, and Single-Event International Champion.

(2) Masters Demonstration and Exhibit of Traditional Weapons

A Masters Demonstration by internationally renowned wushu masters as well as a showcase of traditional weapons will be held. Audiences will enjoy performances by renowned senior masters of various styles, famous coaches and world-class champions, and the China Health Qigong Federation Performance Team. The Exhibit will feature traditional weaponry collections and the finest products made by contemporary national treasure-caliber weapon makers.

(3) USAWKF National Junior Wushu Team Trials (Taolu)

The purpose of this biennial event is to select the National Junior Team to represent the USA at the Junior World Championships. 36 junior athletes will be selected for the USA National Junior Wushu Team and the top 12 junior athletes will compete in the 3rd World Junior Wushu Championship in Singapore, December 2-9, 2010. U.S. citizenship is required for participation.

(4) USA International Sport Culture Industry Forum

During the International Wushu Championships, we are also holding the Silicon Valley USA International Sport Culture Industry Forum. We specially invited San Jose State University, UC San Francisco and Stanford University professors, local government. Also, China city leaders, the head of sports management, sports experts, business representatives and so on, come together to exchange experience and knowledge about sports and sports culture industry.

Come join us! Don't miss this great opportunity to experience the exciting Martial Arts events!

Best Regards,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads 'Shu Dong Li'.

Master Shu Dong Li
President of Li's Wushu Academy
Director of National-International
Wushu-Kungfu Championships